Adult Programs

Adult Summer Reading Program - Why should kids have all the fun? Summer reading programs can be for adults too! Summer reading encourages people to read, use their public libraries, and think about how to squeeze in a few more pages before bed. This year, we are changing up our format and doing a Book Bingo. Each square of our bingo card gives you the challenge to read a particular type of book. Complete either a horizontal, vertical or diagonal square to get Bingo, or complete the whole card for Blackout. To register, stop by the library on or after Monday, June 25th, and pick up a book tote and Bingo card, with more details about participating. Don't forget to sign up for our summer reading e-newsletter which will arrive weekly in your inbox, packed with ideas for reading. Enjoy your summer of reading and turn in your card by Tuesday September 4th to be eligible for prizes. Made possible through the generosity of the Friends of the Riverdale Public Library.

Shipwrecks: A Story of Sorrow and Loss - Saturday, July 14th, 1:00 p.m. We all know the classic story of a terrible shipwreck. The Captain must go down with the ship. Women and children first. All the men must be heroes, except for those cowards who must be shot by stern officers because they attempted to rush to boats over the bodies of the women and children. The Captain must be a superhero, a magnificent seaman, cool, brave, facing death and danger, and a living guarantee that the wreck was nobody's fault. In an absorbing account, Professor Angus Gillespie tells the story of shipwrecks—their types, their causes, their states of preservation, the salvage attempts, and related legal aspects.

Linda Vogel's Recipes Buttermilk Grilled Chicken

Ingredients:

3 cups buttermilk.
6 garlic cloves, thinly sliced.
1 tbsp. cumin.
1 tbsp. chili powder.
2 tsp. kosher salt.
1 tsp. ground coriander.
1 tsp. paprika.
3 ½ to 4 lbs. legs or thighs.
Black pepper.

Directions: Mix together the buttermilk, garlic, cumin, chili powder, 2 tsp. salt, coriander and paprika. Lay the chicken pieces in a single layer in a glass, ceramic or other nonreactive baking dish. Pour the marinade over the chicken, making sure every piece is covered. Cover with plastic wrap and refrigerate for at least 8 hours or up to 12 or overnight. Spray the grilling grate of a gas or charcoal grill with vegetable oil spray. Preheat the grill to medium heat. Drain the marinade from the chicken and pat the chicken pieces with paper towels to dry them. Season them with salt and pepper and grill for 12 to 15 minutes until cooked through, turning the chicken pieces once or twice during grilling. The time will vary depending on the size of the piece. Serve right away or at warm room temperature.
