

The Art of Crossword Puzzle Construction -

Thursday March 4th at 7:00 p.m. If you want to know how crossword puzzles are constructed, or to try your hand at making your own, this program is for you. Ruth B. Margolin broke into the field of crossword puzzle construction in 2014. She has had twelve puzzles published in the New York Times, including five Sunday puzzles. In addition, she has had two puzzles in the Wall Street Journal, one in USA Today, and she has constructed a puzzle for a commercially available crossword mug and for a college alumni publication. Better Together Library Programs

Butler, Kinnelon, Pequannock, and Riverdale Libraries join together to bring you 4 programs for the new year, via Zoom, FREE to our patrons!

Staying Positive During Trying Times* - Thursday, January 21st, 6:30 p.m.

With gloom and doom all around us, it can be hard to find the positive. Isolation has many of us feeling sad and anxious. But it is possible to stay positive, feel hopeful, and reduce stress/anxiety during these turbulent times. We can learn to feel better by paying attention to our thoughts and feelings in a way that increases our ability to manage difficult situations and make wise choices. With intentional effort and tools for cultivating happiness and mindfulness we can feel more positive and hopeful, even during a crisis! For more information or to sign up, call 973-838-1321 or visit www.kinnelonlibrary.org.
