Adult Programs

Gentle Yoga Classes - Fridays, 10:00

a.m. January 8th - March 26th No matter what physical ability you enter class with, there will ALWAYS be a modification that's perfect for you, today, in your body. You will learn how to listen to your body and honor where you are, today. You will also learn how to explore the breath and how it affects the way you move. Meditation and pranayama (breathing practices) may also be explored. No prior yoga experience is necessary, all levels are welcome. Registrants will be sent a Zoom link prior to the program.

Better Together Programs

Butler, Kinnelon, Pequannock, and Riverdale Libraries join together to bring you 4 programs for the new year, via Zoom, FREE to our patrons! (Contact the hosting library to register)

The Art of Crossword Puzzle Construction - Thursday March 4th at 7:00 p.m. (presented by Pequannock Library) If you want to know how crossword puzzles are constructed, or to try your hand at making your own, this program is for you. Ruth B. Margolin broke into the field of crossword puzzle construction in 2014. She has had twelve puzzles published in the New York Times, including five Sunday puzzles. In addition, she has had two puzzles in the Wall Street Journal, one in USA Today, and she has constructed a puzzle for a commercially available crossword mug and for a college alumni publication. History of the Jersey Shore - Wednesday, April 14th, 7:00 p.m.

(presented by Riverdale Library) Join author and photographer Kevin Woyce for a colorful tour of New Jersey's coastal history, from the long-ago days of lighthouses and shipwrecks to the founding of today's most popular summer resorts. The slide show includes my original photography of Jersey Shore lighthouses, amusement parks, boardwalks, and hotels, plus vintage maps and images of historic people, places, and events.
