INTERNET POLICY

The Riverdale Public Library is pleased to offer access to the wealth of resources on the Internet. We would like to remind the users of this service that:

- Some or all of the resources may be unavailable at any time for technical reasons over which the Riverdale Public Library has no control.
- Patrons' use of the facility and the equipment for access to the Internet will be managed to allow the greatest use by the greatest number of people.
- Library personnel have no control over the quality of information on the Internet. Each user must evaluate the validity and reliability of the information found.
- Parents or guardians, NOT the library or its staff, are responsible for Internet information selected and/or accessed by their children.
- Some materials may be offensive, disturbing and/or illegal. Library personnel do not monitor or supervise Internet access, except for length of time of use.
- Use of the Internet should be consistent with the library's mission to provide educational, informational, and cultural material and services to residents of the community.
- The library reserves the right to end an Internet session.

In addition, please be aware of the following:

- Viewing child pornography is against the law NJSA 2C: 24-4 (4) (b)
