

Computer Classes

Meet the computer

This is a class for new users who want to learn the basics about the personal computer.

Introduction to the Internet

What is the Internet? How do you use it? What can it do for you?

Email: The Basics

This class is a basic introduction to email. What is an email account, how to create an account, addressing messages and more.

Google: The Basics

Tips for using the most popular search engine for the Internet and an introduction to many handy features.

Introduction to eBay

Learn how to search for and buy items on the world's largest auction.

Searching the Library Catalog

This class covers the basic skills necessary to use the library catalog, including searching by author, title, and keyword.

Sending Pictures in Email

Learn how to attach photographs to email and send your own pictures to friends and family.

Internet Top Ten

Take a tour of the top web sites for finding information we all use everyday.

Shopping on the Internet

Explore some popular places to shop on the web. Learn how to tell if a site is secure. Find coupons to save money!

Health Information on the Web

There is so much information on health topics! Find out which websites you can trust and how to find information on medicines and medical conditions.